

The New Zealand Society for Parasitology (Inc.)

PARASITE ADVISORY DAY in conjunction with

wormwise

22 October 2019 Invermay Campus, Puddle Alley, Mosgiel, Dunedin. Cullen room.

Time	What	Who
8.15-8.45am	Arrival tea/coffee
8.45	Welcome	Vic
9.00-9.40	Farm changes and why they make decisions. Why would a farmer trust you enough to change systems?	David Stevens & Marie Casey, Agresearch Invermay
9.40-10.10	A case study on dry land farms, managing refugia with monitoring	Andrew Dowling
10.10-10.40	Morning tea
10.40-11.10	Determining efficacy: WAAVP FECRT guidelines	Matt Playford
11.10-11.40	Interpreting FECs/Larval cultures, tips and tricks? Quantitative larval culture	Matt Playford
11.40-12.40	Case study: Dealing with drench resistance, what does it look like. Bring your drench resistance cases to discuss.	Clive Bingham
12.40-1.10pm	Lunch
1.10-2.10	Cattle TSTs how to work out the happy factor- application.	Ben Allot & Andy Greer. TST practical
2.10-2.50	External parasites: review on best practice sheep ectoparasite control	Colin McKay.
2.50-3.30	Techion Lab visit	Techion
3.30-3.45	Afternoon tea
3.45-4.30	Wormwise Q drench, latest recommendations- protocol/ chemical	Clive, Wormwise TAG
4.30-4.45	Wrap	Andrew/Clive

Thanks to sponsors

