

Parasite Advisory Day 2020

20th October, Awapuni Racecourse, Palmerston North

(Preceding the NZ Society for Parasitology Conference on 21st and 22nd October at Distinction Hotel)

Agenda:

8.45	Welcome	Andrew Dowling PGGWrightson
9.00	The cost of not drenching	Andrew Dowling	2 case studies and discussion
9.50	Genetics to manage parasites:	Dayanne Almeida, Zoetis	What is the difference between resistance and resilience? How is this measured? What is the selection protocol? How is the data generated what are the pros and cons? eBVs and Index
10.45	Morning tea
11.15	Genetics in practice	Kate Broadbent	A farmer's perspective. How and what they actually measure, what happens on farm, what are the results now
11.45	Refugia: the cycling of parasites through sheep and cattle	Tania Waghorn, Agresearch	What is the impact? Do we need to worry, implications for cross grazing and refugia
12.40	Lunch
1.25	Workshop: Refugia	Clive Bingham, Zoetis Simon Mashall, Vet Services Dannevirke & Wormwise spokesman Andrew Dowling Victoria Chapman, Zoetis	3 different farm scenarios: what are the ways refugia can be created & managed in each farm system to ensure the farms are sustainable
3.25	Afternoon tea
3.45	Drench resistance discussion group	Sara Sutherland, Vet Services Wairarapa	How it is managed, and the outcomes of the discussion group Sara has been running for many years
4.15	Wormwise Update	Simon Marshall	You will want to hear this if you are interested in farmer workshops...
4.35	Close	Victoria Chapman	